City of Deltona - Proud to be part of it...

Early voting moves Commission meetings

THE TEMPORARY CLOSING OF the Deltona Regional Library has created an issue for the Volusia County Election Department with regards to a location for early voting. City Hall has thus become the alternative location for early voting.

Early voting will be Aug. 11-24 and Oct. 20-Nov. 2 at City Hall. Because the Elections Department requires voting precincts to be secure, City Commission meetings scheduled for Aug. 18, Oct. 20 and Nov. 3 must be moved to an alternative location and therefore will not be televised. The Aug. 18 meeting will be at the Deltona Community Center, 980 Lakeshore Drive. For information on early voting, call the Department of Elections, (386) 736-5930.

A message from Mayor Mulder...

I'M SO GLAD THE RAINS HAVE DECIDED TO come. As long as they continue, we'll be able to host our annual Fireworks Extravaganza. It's always a very exciting event and it's nice to see families gathering together with outdoor chairs and coolers. I hope you will all attend.

Even though we've gotten some rain, I still think its important to mention how critical it is to conserve water. Clean, reliable water will be a growing issue for most of Florida in the very near future. If you haven't already done so, sit down with the people in your house and talk about how collectively you can save water and if you need some help, call City Hall and we can get you started.

Happy July 4th! Mayor Dennis Mulder!

There's treasure in our trash

GARBAGE IS NOT SOMETHING we want to think about daily, but since 1960, the amount of waste generated in America has nearly tripled, according to Keep America Beautiful. In 2003, containers and packing materials comprised the largest segment of all U.S. municipal solid waste at 32 percent (2005 EPA data).

Recycling helps reduce the amount of solid waste and helps create the products we all use every day. About 80 percent of what Americans throw away is recyclable, yet we only recycle about 28 percent of what we could. Every month Americans throw out enough glass to fill up a giant skyscraper, and if all our newspapers were recycled, we could save about 250 million trees a year.

The biggest treasures in the recyclables here in Deltona are scholarship dollars. That's correct, the proceeds from our recyclables are used to sponsor the City's Scholarship Program. 2008 was the first year for the program and the Commission award $50,000 in scholarship monies to 28 Deltona residents seeking to pursue a higher education degree at a Florida college or university. Remember to keep recycling, as there is treasure in the trash, and it helps foster the education of our residents.

Commission, staff serve "Meals"

In collaboration with "National Older Americans Month" City staff and members of the City Commission assisted the Meals on Wheels program that operates from the Deltona Community Center. Pictured below Vice Mayor Carmolingo delivers a meal to a Deltona resident. Volunteers with the Council on Aging volunteer their time to deliver meals to residents five days a week throughout the year.

Deltona Library closed until June '09

THE DELTONA REGIONAL LIBRARY HAS CLOSED FOR APPROXIMATELY one year to accommodate an $11.7 million expansion project that will double the library's size and add an environmental learning center and an outdoor amphitheater.

Construction costs are estimated at $8.8 million with another $2.9 million designated for architectural fees, relocation expenses, furniture, fixtures, equipment and artwork. The Deltona City Commission has contributed $2 million toward the amphitheater project and will pay $250,000 a year for 10 years to help with maintenance and operating costs.

The library is Volusia County's busiest library, accounting for 16 percent of all county library transactions. Last year, Deltona patrons checked out more than 580,000 items and accounted for 1.9 million transactions.

During the one-year closure, staff will provide limited library services in two modular units and a bookmobile on Daytona Beach College's Deltona campus next to City Hall. The modular units will have public access computers and adult and teen materials available for check-out. They will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday.

The expansion project will double the library's size from 25,000 to 50,000 square feet. The computer area, auditorium and children's sections will be enlarged, and a new teen area will be built. Also in the plans is a two-room meeting suite that can be accessed by community groups after hours.

A 4,000-square-foot environmental learning center will be part of the library complex. The center is being developed to encourage discovery and exploration of Volusia County's ecosystems and Lyonia Preserve and to foster community involvement in conservation efforts. Staff will provide field, classroom and laboratory environmental experiences.

The environmental learning center will include two classrooms, exhibition space, a visiting scientist's workroom, and a coffee and gift shop.

The library expansion and environmental learning center will be "green." The County will apply for Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification from the U.S. Green Building Council to certify the building is environmentally responsible and a healthy place to work. Additionally, the landscaping will incorporate Florida native plants that thrive in local conditions and require less maintenance and no supplemental irrigation once established.

A 1,000-seat outdoor amphitheater will be constructed next to the library for community gatherings and educational instruction.

The entire complex – including the expanded library, environmental learning center and amphitheater – is expected to open in June 2009.
